Chair's Annual Report November 2013

I am pleased to report another successful year for Kingston U3A and thank you all for your continued support. We have a growing membership, now approaching 900, and have held several New Members' Meetings to welcome them into our fold.

I would like to place on record my sincere thanks and appreciation of all the work put in to keep Kingston U3A running, by the Executive Committee, the General Activities Committee, the Group Coordinators, the newsletter Editor, layout manager and helpers, all group leaders and the tea team who look after us at the monthly meetings. I would like to thank Peter Harris who has managed the database for many years to great effect. He has now handed this over to Linda Foreman. We have had a very impressive Shared Learning Project which resulted in the publication of the hugely successful Out and About in South-West London handbook. There are more SLPs in the pipeline and plans for more of the joint study days we organise with Merton, Richmond and Wandsworth U3As.

Continuing sponsorship from Russell-Cook enabled us to have a professional redesign of our website, ably managed by Diane Wilson, and we plan to use this and our email database to greater effect in the coming year. We are currently in negotiations with Russell-Cook for further assistance this year. We have also purchased a data projector and laptop for use at monthly and other meetings. One exercise was to check on the membership status of people in Kingston groups as we previously made a decision that everyone needs to be a Kingston member even if they are in a neighbouring U3A. This proved contentious in some instances. We checked with the Third Age Trust whose advice is that we are entitled, as an autonomous unit, to make this decision and that it is justified in terms of the extra administration which would be needed to check the membership status of non-Kingston participants. There will be no retrospective enforcement, but we will be checking this in the coming year.

Another problematic issue was our use of paid tutors in certain very limited instances, which brought disapproval from our Regional Trustee, but support from you, our members, when I raised the issue earlier this year, and agreement from other groups doing the same, whom I met at the National Conference recently. A related issue is the existence of satellite bank accounts for some of our groups, again subject to central disapproval. We have regularised the use of these and each has two signatories and submits their annual accounts to our Honorary Treasurer Martine Roscorla each year. We are satisfied that this is a sensible use of everyone's time and money.

Another dispute has arisen in respect of the orchestra. They have registered themselves as a separate charity and have thus been in contention with the Third Age Trust, who now do not regard them as part of Kingston U3A and have refused to allow them to use the name U3A. They are currently considering a new name but we hope to continue a warm and friendly relationship with them in the future and wish them well.

I am very pleased to announce that the National Chair of U3A UK, Barbara Lewis, is coming to Kingston in February to address our Group Leaders' meeting. She is a very dynamic and friendly lady and we are greatly honoured that she has agreed to visit us.

We are currently considering holding an event at The Rose in September or October next year. This might consist of a high profile speaker in the theatre and an open fair showing the work of a wide selection of our groups in the cafe area. I hope that groups will see this as an opportunity to show the wider membership and the Kingston public what we are all about.

We need to remember the core values of U3A which are to promote and share learning and I trust that the forthcoming year will see us fostering and developing these values in the friendly and welcoming manner which has been our hallmark as a flourishing group.

The Chair advised us that as we had a quorum we could open the meeting, after explaining the purpose of the meeting she pointed out that members are permitted to attend the AGM free of charge. The £1 paid on entry was to cover the following talk and tea. Any members not wishing to stay for these could retrieve their £1 as they left.

The Chair read her report, printed in full in this Newsletter. The Treasurer presented the Accounts answering the several questions raised by members. The present examiner has agreed to continue.

The committee were introduced individually with each giving us a brief indication of their role.

Jane Hoyland the membership secretary reported that membership may well reach 1,000 by the end of the year. She emphasised the need for members renewing their membership to enclose a sae. Cards will no longer be sent if a sae is not enclosed.

Linda Foreman, Database Manager, described the records she keeps and the data retrieved from them for various reasons such as capitation and gift aid.

Eva Garland arranges speakers for the Monthly Meetings.

Lesley Hodges has now taken on New Members meetings.

Joy Garvey, Business Secretary, receives, distributes incoming mail, takes minutes, produces agendas etc.

Shirley Miller represents the Group Coordinators on the committee and arranges their 4 meetings a year and the resulting schedules for the Newsletter. They also give assistance with starting up new groups, organise the annual Group Leaders Meeting.

Diane Wilson Web Coordinator reported that the site gets about 600 hits a month. It is used by students, channel 4 and shared learning participants in addition to general users.

Gisela Zürcher-Feiß explained that together with 5 others she organises all the trips both here and abroad giving examples of how popular they are.

There were 2 nominations for new committee members Richard Hawkins and Liz Magennis. Tellers volunteered for checking the voting for each committee member in turn. All were elected.

The meeting lasted approximately 30 minutes and was followed by a fascinating illustrated talk by Captain William Wells on The Vikings.

Kingston U3A Database

Many thanks to Peter Harris for running the database admirably since 2007.

We have recently checked the rules concerning Data Protection and Gift Aid as these occasionally change and we have had a number of queries from members.

Data Protection

1 As a small charity we are fortunately not required to register the Membership Database with the Information Commissioner's Office which would cost time and money. We must however advise you how your information is stored and used.

2 We store names, payments and contact details on a computer for administrative purposes and to enable us to send you Newsletters and other U3A information. Advice on security has been sought from a computer professional. There is a secure backup.

3 We store details of your interests as supplied by you, to help plan our activities, and we occasionally check your membership of Groups.

4 We store details on whether you wish to receive the National Newsletter from U3A HQ at Bromley, and if so, we send them your name and address.

5 We send annual anonymised statistics to U3A HQ at Bromley for capitation and insurance purposes. We are occasionally asked for other statistics by HQ and U3A Regional Committees to inform their plans and policies.

6 We store information on whether you wish us to claim Gift Aid on your behalf.

Gift Aid

7 Gift Aid, currently worth 25% of your subscription, can be claimed by Kingston U3A if you pay Income Tax or Capital Gains Tax at least of that amount. As a rough guide, you pay Income Tax this year if your total income is more than about £9,440 (£10,500 if over 65 and £10,660 if over 75). There are various exceptions and if in doubt please consult HMRC.

8 For a subscription of £13 we can claim £3.25 from the Government. For a joint subscription of £20 we can claim £5. This is at no cost to you.

9 If you advise us that we can claim Gift Aid, we do not see any details of your tax affairs or even know your Tax Office. All we know is that you are paying at least £3.25 in taxes as above, and we send a list of relevant people to a central Tax Office.

10 We are keen to maximise this source of income which has helped to keep the subscription constant since 2010 despite rising costs.

11 Gift Aid declarations do not now have to be signed personally and an electronic record is adequate, but those already signed are still valid. We have to remind you periodically to check that your tax covers the £3.25 and we do this at the annual membership renewal.

12 For those wishing to opt in, or not sure whether they are opted in, please send a letter or email to me, headed: Kingston U3A Gift Aid Declaration. Include your name and address, and write that you (and your named partner if appropriate) wish Kingston U3A to reclaim the tax on your membership subscription. Also write the following: I confirm that I am a UK taxpayer and pay tax at least equal to any reclaimed. (You do not need to state an amount as that may change in future years.)

Thank you for your time in reading this, and please let me know of any change of address or email. Also let me know if you do not need a paper copy of our quarterly Newsletter which is available in colour to those with an email address.

If you would like to discuss the possibility of starting a group, workshop, short course or any other type of activity, please get in touch with one of the coordinators, who are happy to help you in anyway they can.

Visit to Two Temple Place

Friday 21st February 2014

Two Temple Place, a Victorian Gothic mansion house, is one of London's architectural gems. It was built as an estate office for William Waldorf, 1st Viscount Astor, in the late 19th century and is now the headquarters of a charity, the Bulldog Trust.

Astor commissioned John Loughborough Pearson to design the house in 1892. In a prominent setting on Victoria Embankment, it resembles the mansion of a great Tudor nobleman. Built of Portland stone, the exterior features carvings by Nathaniel Hitch and two large mullioned bay windows. The building is topped by a gilded weathervane depicting a galleon.

The interior is magnificent, with a full height, top-lit staircase hall with oak panelling, mahogany stairs and solid ebony columns. The first floor “office” was designed in the form of a Tudor Great Hall with beautiful stained glass windows and a hammerbeam roof of Spanish mahogany. There are fascinating carvings and panels throughout the house.

Our trip will incorporate a guided tour of the house lasting for about an hour, and a chance to see the 2014 exhibition: Art, Science and Exploration, from the University of Cambridge Museums. We will arrive in time to buy tea or coffee (approximately £1.50), and cake if desired (approximately £3.00 or £4.00). The cafe only accepts cash.

After meeting at Wimbledon Underground Station we will take the District Line to Temple. The house is a short walk from there.

The Queen's Chapel of the Savoy

Wednesday 19th March 2014

The Chapel has a long association with the Duchy of Lancaster. It is the last surviving building of a hospital founded by Henry VII for homeless people in 1512. It stands on the area of London known as the Savoy. The Chapel belongs to Her Majesty The Queen in Her Right as Duke of Lancaster. It is a ‘free’ chapel or ‘peculiar’ – not falling within any bishop’s jurisdiction, but remaining firmly within the Church of England.

The Chapel remains an important part of the Savoy Estate, the Duchy of Lancaster’s principal London land holding. It continues to provide spiritual service to the community, as it has done for nearly 500 years. It is also the chapel of the Royal Victorian Order, an Order of Chivalry within the Sovereign’s personal gift. By The Queen’s appointment, the present Chaplain is also Chaplain of the Order.

Maintenance of this historic building remains the Duchy of Lancaster’s responsibility. Recent work has included the landscaping of the garden in honour of Her Majesty's Golden Jubilee, and the restoration of the Chapel ceiling in 1999.

On arrival at the Chapel we will enjoy an introductory guided tour by the Steward of the Chapel and will then be served tea/coffee and biscuits. After that you are free to browse at your leisure before making your way home again.

Cost: £ 4.65 per person (includes guided tour and refreshments)

Meeting time/point: 10.15 a.m. outside platform One, Waterloo Station

Please complete the attached application form and send it with your cheque for £ 4.65 payable to Kingston U3A (GAS) and a stamped addressed envelope if you do not give an e-mail address to: Jean Das, 233, Malden Way, New Malden, KT3 5QW - Tel. No.: 8942 7455

Spring Holiday Bath, Bristol and Tyntesfield

Departing on Monday 12th May 2014 for 5days/4nights

Our Spring Holiday for 2014 will not take us too far away from Surrey and therefore will not involve long, tiresome coach journeys. We board our executive coach at the designated pick-up points and - en route to our 4* hotel in Bristol where we shall stay for four nights on a HB basis- we will visit the NT's Dyrham Park property near Chippenham. Built between 1692 and 1704, Dyrham Park contains fine textiles and paintings as well as items of Delftware.

Our Blue Badge guide will join us on day 2 when we will visit the NT's Tyntesfield property, an extraordinary Gothic extravaganza with its original Victorian interior intact, with a sumptuously decorated private chapel and surrounded by landscaped gardens. In the afternoon we have a guided tour of Bristol and visit Brunel's SS Great Britain.

On day 3 our destination is Bath, famous for its Roman Baths, Assembly Rooms and Royal Crescent. Our BB guide will take us on a tour and in the afternoon we will visit the Roman Baths Museum. The next day we will enjoy free time in Wells, the smallest City in England, with its famous Gothic Cathedral containing fine medieval statuary, stained glass, chapter house and astronomical clock, the 13th C Bishop's Palace and Vicar's Close – a complete medieval street. We then continue to the NT's Montacute House, a magnificent Elizabethan house adorned with Renaissance features, including contemporary plasterwork and heraldic glass. The property featured in the award-winning film Sense and Sensibility. The Long Gallery is home to over 50 Tudor and Elizabethan Portraits on loan from the National Portrait Gallery. On our return journey on day 5 we pay a visit to the NT's Lacock Abbey, Fox Talbot Museum and Village near Chippenham. Founded in 1232, many parts of this abbey have survived largely intact and the Victorian woodland garden includes an 18th C summer house and rose garden.

Gisela Zürcher-Feiß, 37, The Byeways,
Surbiton KT5 8HT – Tel. No 8399 4990

A travel-weary group of 32 U3A members arrived at Drymen on the outskirts of Glasgow in the late evening to be met by our cheerful and efficient Blue-Badge Guide, Mike, proclaiming "Welcome to Scotland!", which quickly restored our spirits. This was echoed by our hotel staff who could not have been more helpful and friendly and who immediately had a delicious hot meal on the table for us.

And so began a most enjoyable few days in Scotland.

Our first visit was to the Burrell Collection, housed in a new purpose built museum in Pollock Country Park, a modern single story building on a sloping site, with glass window panels from floor to ceiling, allowing light to fill the inside and the trees on one side to appear to be part of the building. This was a perfect setting to show off the incredible collection of works of art.

Then we embarked on our Charles Rennie Mackintosh 'experience' first visiting the Glasgow School of Art which is regarded as his finest architectural masterpiece, where we were given a tour by former students of the school and saw students at work in the various studios and corridors.

We then took tea at The Willow Tea Rooms which he designed in 1904, a splendid place with elegant interior furnishings, employing some of the same details as we had seen in the Art School. So when we later visited Hill House, the home of the late Walter

Join the Tea Team

Blackie, the publisher, which was also designed and furnished by Mackintosh together with his wife, Margaret Macdonald, we were beginning to feel quite knowledgeable about his style in what is regarded as an outstanding example of his domestic architecture. No trip to this part of Scotland would be complete without a cruise on Loch Lomond, viewing the beautiful scenery and taking photos along the way.

Then our visit to Edinburgh, with a coach tour of the sites, and on to Leith where the Royal Yacht Britannia is now moored and where we had a tour of the ship including the State Dining Room, the Bridge and the Royal Apartments. All too soon we started on our return journey, pausing to see Dumfries House, a beautiful Palladian Mansion designed by the Adam Brothers, which has recently been refurbished thanks to a loan from the Prince of Wales through his Trust. Thus we ended our whistle stop tour of Scotland with some of us determined to return to see more! However, none of this would have been possible without the planning and organization of the tour by Gisela who, together with Sheila, worked so hard to make it enjoyable – thank you both!

Shirley Rees

We would welcome some more volunteers to help serve teas at our monthly meetings. We are a friendly group and the job isn't onerous: each team of four does duty just three times a year. If you are interested, please ring Ann Rice (8399 6254) or email jmr.64@tiscali.co.uk.

Looking forward to hearing from you!
